The New ATLAS TIRE WITH GRIP-SAFE SILENT TREAD

WE'VE sold Atlas Tires for years—made hosts of friends—And Now! The new Atlas is an absolute achievement in modern tire design—Grip-Safe, Silent Tread.

A tire with modern styling, yet rugged performance ability. There's safety in the zig-zip-safe center tread—road grip in the abundant, tougher rubber in the deeper tread design—a tread that lasts. And underneath this safe deep, longer-lasting tread are extra-heavy, heat-resisting plies of anti-friction cord to prevent blowouts. The Atlas actually gives greater safety, more non-skid mileage, longer life and silent operation.

Unquestionably, Atlas is today's greatest tire value, and in keeping with this big standard of quality, the Atlas tube has been re-designed and re-inforced for greater safety and blowout protection.

A "sweet" combination for safe, trouble free, economical, long-time tire performance.

Let us show you what makes us so enthusiastic about it. There's no obligation.

Final Orders Received For Surrender Grounds Work

Local National Park Service officials today announced receipt of a photostatic copy of the order signed by Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes, formally designating and declaring the establishment of the Appomattox Court House National Historical Monument at Appomattox, Va.

In accordance with the provisions of this order, the National Park Service, bureau of the United States Department of the Interior, has assumed jurisdiction over the 970 acre tract at Old Appomattox Court House. Plans for the preservation and development of the Monument, already tentatively outlined, will be formulated and submitted to the Washington Office of the National Park Service for final decision, as to the scope of development and methods of procedure; Secretary Ickes' order is quoted in part as follows:

"Order Designating the Appomattox Court House Historical Monument- Virginia

"WHEREAS the act of Congress approved August 13, 1935 (49 Stat. 613), authorizes the establishment of Appomattox Court House National Historical Monument when title to all the land, structures and other property within a distance of one and one-half miles from Appomattox Court House site, Virginia, as designated by the Secretary of the Interior, shall have been vested in the United States in fee simple; and

"WHEREAS a fee simple title to all the land necessary or desirable for the establishment of the said monument is vested in the United States:

"NOW, Therefore, I -Harold L. Ickes- Secretary of the Interior, under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon the Secretary of the Interior by the said act of August 13, 1935, do hereby designate the following described land with the structures thereon to be the Appomattox Court House National Historical Monument: (Then follows the detailed boundaries of the 970 acre tract, the order closes with this statement:

"The administration, protection, and development of the Appomattox Court House National Historical Monument shall be exercised under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior by the National Park Service, subject to the provisions of the Act of August 25, 1916, entitled 'An Act to establish a National Park Service, and for other purposes, as amended.'

"Warning is expressly given to all unauthorized persons not to appropriate, injure, destroy deface or remove any feature of this national monument.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official seal of the Department of the Interior to be affixed in the City of Washington, this 10th day of April, 1940.

"Signed: Harold L. Ickes,
Secretary of the Interior."

County School Budgets In Va. In A Dither!

Appomattox school will run nine months this year, but a big red question mark hovers over the school budgets for next session. Deprived of expected aid from the state, the schools were faced with an early closing this year. However, meeting Tuesday night with the school board of supervisors authorized the borrowing of enough money to finish out this session. Something over $6,000 will have to be borrowed and paid back the next school year. That throws next year's budget into a dither. The only consolation is that nearly 40 Virginia's counties are paddling the same canoe, and such a prevalent condition may force state action. The counties have received in former years a tidling over sum from a discretionary fund which the last General Assembly reduced to skeleton dimensions. Unless that fund is re-established, nearly half of Virginia's counties face a vastly curtailed school program, non accredited high schools and a head-splitting problem.

Ball League Begins Here Saturday

The opening game of the Skyline baseball league will be played here Saturday at 3:15 on the new Lee Theatre diamond, with Appomattox against Big Island. Sunday afternoon Appomattox will be host to Hampton Looms, of Bedford.

"Bo" Stanley will pitch the opening game for Appomattox. Dick Tate will do the twirling for Sunday's game, with "Red" Hudson behind the plate.

Rev. R. E. Redding will throw out the first ball for the opening game. All games start at 3:15.

The local team has been handicapped in practice plays by rainy weather and wet grounds. However manager John Curtis Caldwell believe he has secured the best all-round ball team ever to play in Appomattox and hopes that Appomattox's first year in the Skyline league will be successful.

Players signed include: Bo Stanley, George Cale, Dick Tate; Henry Minnick; Junior Beard, Nat Rosser, Clarence Wilkerson; Nick Leftwich; Harry Ewers, Lester Spencer; Herman Robinson; Vernell Mitchell, James St. Clair; Latham Harvey; Kennett Forster; J. C. Caldwell, manager; Ned Hancock, scorer and John Oxford and Frankie Ward as umpires.

Educational Program At CCC Camp Acclaimed

The educational program at the CCC Camp at Appomattox has attracted attention of federal and state officials, some declaring it to be the most successful in Virginia. Under Milton Roach, educational advisor and a staff of WPA teachers directed by Mrs. Mildred Alvis, the boys are given a variety of practical instruction. Fifteen boys have been taught to read and write. The instructors offer courses in typing, arts and craft, shorthand; office management; photography, journalism; safety; carpentry, as well as regular school subjects. The teachers include: Mrs. Lucy B. Staples, Mrs. Nicholas Turner, Mrs. Alpha Higgenbotham, Mrs. Stella A. Wilson; Oscar L. West and Mr. Roach.
